Will you examine the Contract, and state whether or not, in your opinion, it would be for the best interests of the parties in interest, and particularly the infant defendant, that the sale therein proposed be consummated.

A. I believe it would be to the best interests for this sale to be consummated. I also don't believe that this property could be divided in any respect except through sale of said property in order to satisfy those concerned. I think it would be very much in the interest of the infant if Mrs. Tyeryar would proceed with this sale. I think that the selling price is very fair.

Q. As I understand your statement, it is your opinion that it would be impossible to divide this property among the Tyeryar heirs?

A. Yes, sir.

To the General Interrogatory: No other testimony for myself except that I concur with the other remarks made by Mr. Bowler.
